

NOW COLLECTING REUNION MONEY

Committee Engaged Securing Amounts Pledged, and More Still Is Needed.

CONFERENCE YESTERDAY

Plans Being Made for Elaborate Entertainment of Southern Women in Richmond.

Mr. James N. Boyd, chairman of the finance committee of the Confederate Reunion, is now engaged in collecting the subscriptions to the entertainment fund. Those who pledged themselves to assist the old soldiers in a financial way have been prompt to meet their obligations. Of the total promised, the major portion already has been secured. Mr. Boyd, however, would consider it a great favor if the rest of the subscribers would now forward their checks to him. Naturally he is anxious to have the fund in hand as soon as possible.

Contributions to the reunion fund are still being received, and what is more, they are still most welcome. Yesterday Mr. Macon, a widely known caterer of this city, contributed $5, and Mrs. Fannie Gwynne added an additional dollar.

CONFERENCE HELD.

Colonel John W. Gordon, the general chairman of the reunion, yesterday held a lengthy conference with the executive committee, and Captain John Thompson Brown, chairman of the parade committee, Mrs. N. V. Randolph, who heads the reception and entertainment committee of ladies, was present, as well as Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Randolph makes the confident assertion that the crowd which is to attend the reunion will be the largest Richmond has ever seen. She bases her prediction on the number of letters she has received in her official capacity. These come chiefly from Southern women—Daughters of the Confederacy, members of the Jefferson Davis Memorial Association, and members of the Confederate Memorial Association. These fair visitors, who will pour into Richmond by the thousands, will be handsomely entertained in a social way. A luncheon will be served to the members of the Confederate Memorial Association in the basement of Second Baptist Church, and they are also to enjoy further hospitality at the Confederate Museum. Other entertainments designed to please the visitors will take place at the Soldiers' Home and in Lee Camp Hall. In fact, the Southern women who are here will be convinced every hour of their waking moments that they are heartily welcome in Richmond.

The representation of official sponsors and maids of honor at the reunion will be exceptionally large. In all, there will be over eighty, and the number of "unofficial" sponsors and maids will be equally great. Most of them will stay at the Jefferson Hotel, and they will be shown every attention. It goes without saying that the Sons of Veterans will see to this.

YOUNG MEN ENTERTAIN.

Musicals to Be Given at Second Baptist Church on Tuesday.

The musicals to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Society of the Second Baptist Church, Adams and Franklin streets, on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock, in the large lecture-room of the church, is an assured success, the young men having been most successful in securing some of the very best local talent, among them Mr. Folk Miller, local talent, to be used in the most enjoyable musicals of the season.

MR. MAYO'S HOUSE FOR CONVENTION

Will Be Used for Entertainment of Guests of Bishop Gibson.

BISHOP OF LONDON TO SPEAK

Mr. P. H. Mayo has offered his house, opposite the Jefferson Hotel, to Bishop Gibson and the diocesan committee for the entertainment of the guests whom the bishop and the committee may invite during the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in America, to be held in this city in the autumn. Bishop Gibson has appointed as the committee on entertainment of those who may be invited by himself and the committee, Mr. Joseph Bryan, Mr. James Wilmer, of Rapidan, and Mr. P. H. Mayo. Mr. Mayo's residence is large and handsomely furnished, and will form a splendid home for the guests during the great convention.

Notable Speakers.

The various committees appointed to arrange for the convention, and the many services to be held during its course, are pushing their work rapidly ahead. The program for the meetings outside of those to be taken up with matters of legislation is almost completed, and some of the strongest speakers in the church have been placed on the list. Among those who will conduct these services are Bishop A. F. Winnington-Ingram, of London, England; Bishop Randolph, of the Southern Diocese of Virginia; Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts; Bishop Nichols, of California, and Bishop H. H. Montgomery, of London, secretary of the venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

A special series of services, relating to the history of the church in Virginia from Colonial times to the present day, will be one of the most marked features of the convention. The first of this series will be conducted by Bishop Burton, of Lexington, Ky., who was formerly rector of St. John's. Various subjects relating to the history of the church in Virginia will be discussed, and many speakers have been engaged. The subjects will probably not be announced until the sermons are delivered.

Though many matters, as usual, will come up before the legislative departments of the General Convention, it is not likely that any material change will be made in the present system of canons. The whole former system was revised in the last convention, and time has been too short. It is held for the present system to have had a fair test. So far, too, there has been no fault found with the present canon laws of the church, and they have proven generally satisfactory. The subject of stricter legislation on divorce, which has occupied so much attention in former conventions, will probably come up again, though it is thought that it will not consume much time. The present canon on divorce is regarded as being very strict and is approaching the ideal, and more working time will be allowed it before further restrictions are urged or undertaken.

CONFESSES CRIME.

Creekmore Will Return to New York Without Contest.

George Aye Creekmore, the young white man arrested here as a suspicious character several days ago by Captain Tomlinson, chief of detectives, yesterday morning, confessed to the theft of jewelry in New York, and said that he would return to the metropolis without extradition papers. Detective George Gay, of New York, arrived in the city yesterday, and recognized Creekmore as the man wanted in New York City on many charges.

WILL CELEBRATE ITS ANNIVERSARY

Great Meetings to Be Held by Y. M. C. A. To-Morrow in Commemoration of Event.

GOVERNOR GLENN TO SPEAK

The Y. M. C. A. theatre meeting to-morrow afternoon doubtless will be the largest men's meeting held this year. The speaker is Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina. He will give his great message, "Is the Young Man Safe?" The music will be fine, the song service beginning promptly at 3:30 o'clock, and the doors of the theatre opening at 3 o'clock. The Seventh Street Christian Church quartet, composed of Messrs. White, Houston, Lohman, and Jones, will sing, as will also Mr. Haddon S. Watkins, the tenor soloist. Tickets of invitation have been issued. Men who were not so fortunate as to get them can do so by calling at the Y. M. C. A. Building.

A second big meeting for men will be held at Cowardin Avenue Christian Church, Manchester, at the same hour. Rev. C. E. Elmore, of Crewe, will speak on "The Question of Wages." Miss Lettie Menzel, the soprano soloist, will sing "The Ninety and Nine." Mr. E. W. Hearn, general secretary of the national capital association, will speak to boys in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. Tickets will be presented at the door, and they can be got at the building or from any of the association boys.

Five Big Meetings at Night.

The fifty-third anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Richmond will be observed with five big meetings at 8 o'clock in five of the leading churches.

At Centenary Methodist Church Rev. W. J. Young, D. D., pastor, will preside. The president's message will be read by Mr. O. A. Hawkins, president of the association, and Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, will be the speaker. The music will be furnished by the church choir.

At the Laurel Street Methodist Church the pastor, Rev. D. G. C. Butts, will preside. The president's report will be read by Mr. W. J. Whitehurst, first vice-president, and Governor R. B. Glenn, and the addresses will be given by Mr. E. W. Hearn, general secretary of the Washington (D. C.) association, and Physical Director, James Lewis Anderson, third vice-president of the association. The address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. Thomas Semmes, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Richmond.

At the Fulton Baptist Church the pastor, Rev. David Hepburn, will preside, and the president's report will be read by Mr. W. D. Duke, a member of the board of directors, and the first chairman of the new building committee. The address will be given by Dr. Livius Lankford, of Norfolk, Va., a leading Christian citizen, and a speaker of exceptional force and power.

The fifth meeting will be held in Manchester in the beautiful Central Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. H. K. Koller, will preside, and the president's message will be read by Mr. C. G. Taylor, Jr., a member of the board of directors of the association. The message of the evening will be given by General Secretary McKee, who is just completing his twenty-first association year. The address at this church will be illustrated by the stereoscopic views, and will be given for the first time.

The theme for the night everywhere will be "Work for God." The Need, the Opportunity, the Value, and no offering will be taken other than the regular church offering. Since the Richmond Association has accomplished this year what no other association in the world has accomplished thus far, the raising of $227,000 in fifteen days for a new building, and the public being thoroughly grieved to the importance of association work, it is anticipated that the night meetings will be largely attended. On Sunday, April 25th, it is expected that a great mass-meeting of women will be held at one of the theatres, with a speaker of unusual power.

Carnival of Games.

The great carnival of games will be held at the Horse Show Building Tuesday night next. The boys will run a moonlight excursion to Dutch Gap and back May 18th, expecting to crowd the boat with their friends and delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention. Every effort will be made to make the association enjoyable for all visitors during the entire Jamestown season. No effort will be spared to accommodate the traveling public, and members of the association from other cities and lands cordially welcome.

MULLFORD'S STOCK.

Had Rusty Spoon, Piece of Slate and Broken Knife. Thomas Mullford is a white man who says he has been living in Richmond some time. He was taken on the street last night by Officer John Ogilvie and charged with being drunk. None of the officers have any recollection of holding the countenance of the accused before.

Several songs and choruses specially arranged for this meeting will be sung. Several of the newly-enrolled soldiers will speak. A self-denial talk will be given by Mrs. Fowler. "The Castaway" will be the special thought of the evening's talk. It is hoped that all the friends will attend the meeting, as the target of the corps' $250 is a long way off. Responsibility

You wouldn't pay railway fare to anybody who happened to ask you for it, but only to the responsible uniformed conductor.

You shouldn't feel bound to take the first cigar that's offered to you, but only the one that's plainly marked with the stamp of responsibility—the "Triangle A."

You know what you're getting when you buy a "Triangle A" Cigar

What do you know about the nameless and irresponsible cigars offered you?

The "Triangle A" is a guarantee of cigar quality before you buy.

It's plain proof that we are willing and anxious to have the American Cigar Company's cigars judged strictly on their merits.

The "Triangle A" has a wider meaning than that of a mere identification mark:

One Side stands for knowing how.

Another Side stands for equipment.

And all that would never be worth a last year's calendar to you if the third side of the "Triangle A" did not stand for the disposition of the American Cigar Company to give the smoker all the benefit of its cigar knowledge and cigar-producing equipment.

Therefore—The American Cigar Company is taking this occasion to assure you that its "Triangle A" is a public sign of its definite, positive and unchangeable intention to offer you always the best cigars that its unequalled equipment and experience are capable of producing.

We manufacture a large number of brands of different blends to suit individual tastes.

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,035 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burrelle, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heirloom that will be handed down to future generations.

This work is one of the several developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Burrelle has made a special study of the work he created several years ago.
